Alagappan, Co-ordinator India is a rich country in terms of her culture, civilization, language, literature, value inculcation etc., The country can economically progress and become rich only when all her citizens are literate especially the women. In this direction of nation building, the Krishnasamy College Education for Women has contributed sincerely for the all round development of women teachers in India. The exclusive women B.Ed., college which is functioning in Manapattu village, Puducherry has taken a lot of innovative programs for the development. The principal, faculty members and B.Ed., trainees work jointly with a team spirit in order to provide various training programs for the development of professional competencies of women teachers.

The National Seminar on the theme "Inculcation of Values among College Students" was well-organised and more than 150 participants presented papers. The students' seminar was conducted on four core courses with the power point presentation of B.Ed., trainees which was another academic program for the benefit of B.Ed., trainees.

The Graduation Day, Educational Tour, Training in Soft Skills, Women's Day Celebration, Campus Interview, Annual Day Competitions, Prize Distribution and various functions celebrated provided opportunities for the holistic development of the teacher trainees. I congratulate the principal and faculty members for their sincere, dedicated, innovative and meticulously planned curricular and co-curricular activities for the welfare of women teachers. I wish them to continue the same for the academic year 2014-2015.
